WILSON WHISKY." PRODUCT OF THE WILSON DISTILLERY, HIGHSPIRE, DAUPHIN CO., PA.

This celebrated Whisky, most carefully and slowly yeasted, mashed, fermented and distilled from the inrainable health-giving Chalybeate waters and choice small grain Rye peculiar to the renowned mountain districts of Pennsylvania and Maryland, and ripened districts of Pennsylvania and Maryland, and ripened in heated ware houses, sea-voyaged and aged in the warm sait air of Bermuda. The oxides of iron and their homologous salts found in the waters from which this Whisky is distilled render this Whisky invaluable and unequaled as a tonic and rejuvenator to those in need of strength, vitality and vigor

FREE COINAGE OF SILVER

Under Consideration in the Senate.

THE SENATE. Among the executive communications presented and referred was one from the Secrean effective navy, the Secretary refers to what ence there is necessary, and he said on that subject in his annual report.

The House bill to provide certificates of honorable service to those who have served in the United States navy or marine corps and who have lost their certificates of discharge was reported back from the committee on naval affairs and passed without amendment.

BILLS REPORTED. Among the bills reported and placed on the calendar was one for a further appropriation of $350,000 for the public building at Los Angeles,

Mr. Ingalls introduced a bill for the erection f a monument to Abraham Lincoln on the Gettysburg battle field. Referred to library committee

DEBTS DUE BY THE SOUTHERN STATES. Mr. Ingalls offered a long preamble and resolution as to debts due by southern states on Indian trust funds and on the direct tax of 1861. This resolution directs the Secretary of the Treasury to furnish the Senate with full OLD AND USELESS DOCUMENTS information on the subject. Agreed to. THE FREE BRIDGE OVER THE POTOMAC. Mr. Gorman offered a resolution, which was agreed to, directing the Secretary of War to cause the chief of engineers to examine and report whether or not the aqueduct bridge over the Potomac river at Georgetown is or is not an obstacle to the navigation of the Potomac

Mr. Frye offered a resolution, which was referred, fixing the salary of three assistant doorkeepers of the Senate at $2,592. THE PROPOSED CENTENNIAL MEMORIAL IN PHILA-DELPHIA. Mr. Frye presented a memorial asking material aid for a structure at Philadelphia commemorating the great events of the first century of national life. He said that it was signed by the governors of the thirteen original states, THE PRESIDENT'S VISITORS this morning innal states and by all the governors of all the states of the Union. He commended the sub-ject to the consideration of the library committee. The memorial was referred to that com-

THE SILVER COINAGE BILL Mr. Mitchell proceeded to address the Senate on the bill for the free coinage of silver. He referred to the subject as one of the most important that had been brought before the Senate and the country. It was not a party question, but rather one on which the people and the people's representatives were divided irrespective of party lines. It involved a contest not, as had been asserted, between friends and enemies of honest money, nor between wild inflationists on the one side and conservative men on the other. It was a subject rising, in importance, to a much higher plane rising, in importance, to a much higher plane and involving questions of vital public interest.

THE SECRET SESSION. At 2:30 p.m., when Mr. Mitchell concluded his remarks, the Senate went into secret ses-

The House was immediately in a great turmoil, as stated, but quiet was ultimately restored and the Speaker made a long statement in justification of his course.

MR, BLAINE IN GOOD HEALTH. Why He was Absent From the Cabinet Meeting Yesterday.

The absence of Mr. Blaine from yesterday's cabinet meeting and his continued absence from the State department from day to day have encouraged the belief among some people that he has not rallied from the shock of his son's death and is seriously ailing himself. This is entirely untrue, as a STAR reporter was told this morning by a gentleman who has an intimate acquaintance tary of the Navy transmitting the "policy" re- | with the Secretary. He is in good health and port. The Secretary says that he is perfectly is rapidly picking up the loose threads of his satisfied with the capacity of this country to work, which he was obliged to drop when complete the eight battle ships recommended Walker died. He does not go to the departby the department. As to what he considered ment, however, except when his preshas taken to attending to his duties at his home on Lafayette square, whither his private secretary, Mr. Dent, has re-moved his typewriter and the other paraphernalia of his work. The foreign ministers have fallen into the habit of calling at the house instead of the department and this morning the Secretary had a long conference with Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minus-ter, in his parlors. The reason for the Secretary's absence from the cabinet meeting yesterday was that he spent the morning and a portion of the after-noon in a discussion with the American delegates to the Pan-American congress of the program and policy to be followed in the delibera-tions of that body.

Mrs. Coppinger, the Secretary's eldest daughter, was seized last night with a slight attack of a malarial complaint, but was considerably better this morning. No alarm is felt as to her

Occupying Valuable Space in the Treasury Department3

The Secretary of the Treasury today transmitted to the Senate a report of the chief clerk of the department with regard to the accumulation of old and useless papers in the department. The Secretary recommends that early action be taken by Congress, as the transaction of the public business is retarded because of the accumulation of papers now useless in the corridors and file rooms. Mr. Brackett, the chief clerk, says that the Treasury building is becoming a very serious they can be either delivered to the purchaser in case of sale or destroyed if it be deemed improper to sell any portion of such papers.

FOR A NEW POST OFFICE. A Bill Introduced Today for a Site and a Building.

The House committee on public buildings and grounds today authorized a favorable report upon Mr. Milliken's bill for the purchase of a site for a city post office at Washington. The bill provides for the site merely, and an ing. This makes the full amount of the bill $1,075,000.

The provisions of the bill authorize the Secretary of State to purchase the eastern end of square 380 or all that part of the square east of the Washington safe deposit company's build-

A CANE FOR THE PRESIDENT. And the Old Man Who Came All the Way From New York to Present It. Patrick Rowan, an old man from Haverstraw. Rockland county, N. Y., arrived here this morning on an early train and soon found his way to the White House. He had with him a cane which he said he wanted to present to the President. It was an odd looking stick tied about with two dozen bows of red, white ville and New England the animation of the and blue and orange colored ribbon. The old past few days was fully equaled. While the man, it appeared by his rambling talk, imagined that by an arrangement between John Kelly, the late Tammany chief, and himself Russell Harrison had been placed in charge of the poor department and he was anxious minutes, when it was taken in hand and later to see that gentleman. Sergt. Johnson took charge of him and escorted him to police headquarters, where Sanitary Officer Frank was introduced to him as Russell Harrison. Rowan was glad to make his acquaintance.

"I AM AN IRISH WARRIOR." he said, "but I am for America. I was in Ireseven hundred years old; the name of the wood was not known and several million dollars had been bet on it in New York. The old man fired off several other romances, and said that he had knocked down two policemen this morning. TOM PLATT DID IT. Are the Big Railroads Hostile to New York?

Special Dispatch to THE EVENING STAR. ALBANY, N.Y., Jan. 29 .- The world's fair bill was practically beaten today. The republican senators insisted on adding the twenty-two new names Platt demanded.

This necessitates the concurrence of the assembly also and neutralizes its action yesterday. While the senate was debating the bill the assembly adjourned until tomorrow. Its concurrence is thus put off twenty-four hours. The Platt scheme of crushing the bill between the two houses has been successfully carried out. The amendment proposed by Senator Irwin, from the special committee on the world's fair, added twenty-two new exhibition commissioners, of whom eighteen are republicans and four democrats.

THE HAND OF PLATT. The names were chiefly those proposed by Platt. When the bill was thus reported the democrats proposed that the senate act on the assembly bill, as, if the independent senate bill were acted on, a single objection in the assembly would force the bill through all the While this question was raised in the senate the assembly cut its session short right after the opening prayer. The assembly's adjournment thus left only two alternatives before the senate: Either to pass the assembly bill without the Platt amendment and send crowded condition of the files space in the the bill to the governor today or pass the senate bill with the Platt amendment, thus matter and one calling for immediate attention. preventing assembly action until tomorrow. An appropriation of $2.000 is asked for to pay the expenses which must be incurred by the removal of the papers in question from the attic and other stories to the basement, where objection in the assembly can now delay the consideration in that body at every stage. After considerable debate the bill was passed as amended by a vote of 25 to 3.

FANNY AND CHARLES Gave the Old Man Rough on Rats and Proceeded to Enjoy Themselves.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 29 .- A very sensational case is on trial in the district court here. Fanny, a young girl, married Robert Burnside. who was old enough to be her grandfather. The bill provides for the site merely, and an amendment was adopted making an appropriation of $800,000 for the erection of the build-lold man's son by a former wife, was pardoned $38,000; assets $28,000. Empire State. ALBANY, N.Y., Jan. 29 .- The lunacy commi sioners' report shows there are in New York state 15,507 lunatics, 477 idiots and 250 feeble minded. They have visited every asylum in the state twice. After an exhaustive review of the glaring defects of the county system the commission recommends that all the insane in the county poor houses, except New York and Kings, be transferred to state asylums. A steady and rapid increase in insanity is noted, but many cases could be cured if prop-erly treated. It is recommended that the division of the insane into sets of "chronic" and "acute" be done away with and that all be treated solely with reference to their curability.

From Wall Street Today. New York, Jan. 29 .- The stock market this morning was less active for the general list, with thirty-six large knots on it and but in sugar refineries, Louisville and Nashbrought up to a fraction above its opening figure. New England followed the same course, but in a small way, as its extreme fluctuation was less than 1 per cent. THE SIERRA BLOCKADE. Prospect of a Speedy Clearing of the Ice and Snow.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.-It now seems probable that the great blockade on the Sierras will soon be over. The big rotary plow has been dug from the snow in Cascade Canon and has dug from the snow in Cascade Canon and has done splendid work since. The track is now clear as far as the plow can clear it. The snow it has been passing through was nearly as hard as ice and averaged twenty feet. The railroad officials state that the only obstruction now is about a foot of hard trampled snow and ice which covers the rails for a considerable distance. This most be rails for a considerable distance. This must be removed by picks and shovels. The officials think the blockaded trains will reach here today. The trains have two weeks mail.
